

Politicians ought to tell the truth. Put a small man in a big position and he will forget himself.

Why is justice in Washington like the weather?

Because it is changeable. The justice that is meted out to the white man not given to the negro.

There is but little hope for the negro in the South.

The BEE editor is not looking for an office and neither does he want one.

Unhappy is the man who hangs on official favors.

Abolish the office of justice of the peace.

It is better that they are abolished.

All offices in the District of Columbia should be filled by election.

The negro vote will divide in 1900.

Our new leadership is made out of that which cannot be seen.

In union there is strength.

E. M. Hewlett is the most manly negro attorney before the District bar.

He is not the man to cater for favors.

If there was more manhood in negro attorneys they would succeed better.

Be truthful, it will pay always.

There is too much treachery among certain negroes to succeed.

This world was not made for the white man alone.

It is not well to tell all you know.

Be careful of what you say and to whom you say it.

Don't be too hasty in coming to a conclusion.

The Maryland politicians have not been cared for as yet.

Will the negro vote ever become a factor in American body politics?

Be what you say you are nothing more.

Deception is sooner or later detected.

An honest man is a truthful man.

You should do nothing that is distasteful to good society.

It is not the person who grins in your face, that should be regarded as your friend.

Don't place too much confidence in the person who pretends friendship.

Be honest with your fellow man.

The best policy is when you can not do a thing say so.

It will never effect you to be truthful.

Don't be alarmed at every little noise.

The try daily has been struggling hard since its publication.

It came out one day and has been trying hard ever since to make its appearance daily.

Can any one tell the difference between the old school and new school politicians?

Well out of the great number of officers appointed in the army not one negro was appointed.

What has become of the repeal of the civil service law?

Don't forget how the negroes fought on San Juan Hill.

General Miles thinks well of the negro soldiers.

And yet not a negro officer has been appointed in the regular army.

The man who speaks the truth is the man to trust.

Don't be too impetuous in your deliberation.

The man who thinks he knows it all is generally affected with the big head.

There was tyranny in the school, on the part of certain school officers.

There are some school officials too much on the old woman order.

The day will soon come when all will be placed on a level.

It is not the wise man who makes a fool of himself.

Our head swells some times beyond the usual size.

POSSY'S WAIT FOR HER SHIP

Hundreds of Other Vessels Arrived, She Heeded Them Not.

An instance of remarkable sagacity displayed by a cat in connection with the oil tank steamer Bayonne is now the prevailing topic of conversation among officials of the Commercial House and the employees of the Atlantic Refining Company. It is a story and the Bayonne, the boarding officer and all others having to do with the vessel.

When the Bayonne was at Philadelphia some weeks ago it had a port, ordinary black and white pussycat, birthplace was far beyond the Alps. The cat was a present to Von Hugo and had accompanied him on several voyages.

While the big oil tanker was in the harbor of Philadelphia some weeks ago it had a port, ordinary black and white pussycat, birthplace was far beyond the Alps. The cat was a present to Von Hugo and had accompanied him on several voyages.

Two days after the Bayonne left the prodigious returned. Running down the wharf, it cast anxious glances at the big bark Sternbeck, which was occupied by the former held by the Bayonne. Visiting in succession every ship in the vicinity, the instinct of the cat forbade it boarding and then, and finally, giving up in despair, it cast its lot in the quarters of Watchman Manly, seemingly reconciled to the fact that it must await the appearance of the absent oil ship. During the six weeks in which the Bayonne was on its voyage to Sarnia, Italy, twenty other steamers came in and out, was carefully inspected in turn by an abandoned tabby. Strange to say, a survey from a distance seemed to satisfy the cat. It was obvious that its former home was not recognized.

At last the Bayonne returned, and then was manifest an unparalleled inhibition of animal instinct. When the oil ship was still far down the stream pussycat took her position on the end of the wharf, showing by a dilated pupil that the oncoming craft was no one so anxiously awaited for some weeks. Unnecessary to say, perhaps, that the recognition was mutual from Capt. Von Hugo on the bridge to the big black dog barking on the pier deck, and there was no need to deny the absence of an enthusiastic welcome. To cap the climax, when the Bayonne was yet twelve feet from the pier the cat's impatience reached its limit. With one flying leap it descended the intervening space, and to the surprise of the crew, ran directly to the place where her kittens
